

CMC Membership Rules: Academic Membership Organisation

A. All CMC Members must:

- (1) Pay an annual subscription;
- (2) Support the aims and objectives of the CMC;
- (3) Not act in a way which brings the mediation process, the mediation profession or the CMC in to disrepute;
- (4) Abide by the CMC's Rules relating to complaints and discipline and agree that if a complaint has been made against them as a CMC member, the CMC may investigate and reach conclusions about the complaint and any subsequent disciplinary measures in accordance with its procedures, whether or not that the member chooses to retain their membership;
- (5) Use any associated phrase designating their status – for example 'CMC Registered' – and any associated logos only in accordance with the rules and policies of use published by the CMC.

B. In addition, Higher or Further Education Institutions must confirm that they are a mediation friendly institution and comply with one or more of the following statements:

- (1) We teach mediation within our curriculum.
 - (2) We teach mediation as a co-curricular module.
 - (3) We run a mediation clinic.
 - (4) We use mediation as part of our internal human resource process.
 - (5) We support students to learn more about mediation as a career option to support employability.
